Agent Lunch & Learn

Through this educational session you will learn what to look for in a professional home stager, staging fundamentals and much more! You will also receive staging marketing materials to share with your clients. We will show you how to get more listings, quicker sales and more referrals!

Certified Agent Staging Course

Do you want to have an edge in today's real estate market? Now you can get it, by adding staging certification to your resume. Learn the fundamentals of staging, and how to better prepare your client's homes for sale, generating faster sales and higher offers. With a staging certification you are creating more benefits for your clients, increasing the number of listings taken and your referral rate. Classes take place at our Training Center in Summerville, and you also get hands on training working in an actively listed property.
